WIDE SCOPE. The code name used by U.S. Army Sergeant Larry M. Kranseler, from Newton, Massachusetts. A Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) specialist, Wide Scope is known for his very calm, easy-going personality in even the most dangerous and frightening situation. One of the few things he can be emotional about is his canine partner, Lamont, whose name is sometimes made fun of for not sounding very tough. Wide Scope joined the reinstated G.I. Joe team shortly after the Joes' battle on Cobra Island against the forces of a revived Serpentor. In addition to his SWAT duties, Wide Scope saw to the security of the new Joe headquarters along with his fellow SWAT specialist, Shockwave.
