HEADHUNTERS. Drug dealers and enforcers working for the drug lord known as Headman. Headman started a major drug operation in Broca Beach, New Jersey -- a town controlled by Cobra. The G.I. Joe team's Drug Elimination Force fought Headman and his Headhunters, attempting to drive them out of Broca Beach without ever learning that Cobra was in charge. In the end, Cobra Commander himself saw to the end of the operation by destroying Headman's boat carrying a big drug shipment. Headman and his Headhunters were then arrested by the DEF.
