BORIS. A prisoner in the same Borovian gulag where Stalker, Quick Kick and Snow Job were held for months. Boris was known to inform on his fellow prisoners, having been promised his life be spared. Due to his long stay in the gulag, Boris was pale and sickly. Boris' snitching got Snow Job badly beaten by the Borovian guards. Ironically, it was Boris' willingness to inform that got him killed. When a rescue attempt was made to free the Joes, the guards asked who planned the attack. Fearing for his life, Boris lied and told them it was Snow Job. The guards saw through the lie because Snow Job was too sick to even stand up. Boris was then blamed for the attack and beaten to death by the guards.
