COLD FRONT. The code name used by U.S. Army Sergeant First Class Charles Donahue, born in Fort Knox, Kentucky. Growing up so close to the Fort Knox Army base, Cold Front grew up interested in armored vehicles. He studied Army strategies and tactics dating back to the Korean War before enlisting at age eighteen. Qualified to drive the Avalanche arctic tank, Cold Font worked with the G.I. Joe team before it was shut down in 1994. Today, like many Joes, he is a reserve member of the team. He was stationed in Russia during the conflict known as World War III. One of many Joes listed on World War III member assignment map first seen in AE #28.
